

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

Are you curious about art, storytelling, theatre, movement, photography, or any other creative expression? Do you enjoy meeting people from different backgrounds and being part of a warm, international group? Do you dream about creating strong communities in your home-city or neighbourhood?

We are inviting young people (18–30) to take part in an interactive, creative project that brings together art, dialogue, and community-building in a safe and inclusive space.

What is this project about?

This project combines performing arts, creative workshops, and collective reflection. Together, we will explore themes such as:

- identity & belonging
- community & cooperation
- social realities & lived experiences
- creativity as a tool for expression and connection

What will we do?

- theatre & movement workshops
- creative writing / storytelling exercises
- group discussions & reflective spaces
- collaborative artistic creation
- shared meals & informal community moments

ART, COMMUNITY & EXCHANGE

Who can apply?

young people aged 18–30
based in Germany, Spain, Ukraine and Ireland and able to travel interested in art, culture, or community work open-minded, respectful, and curious

How to apply?

Send a short message about yourself to following emails depending on where you are based:

Germany: abdo@lidicehaus.de

Ireland: eurobuginternational@gmail.com

Spain: k.artistic.europe@gmail.com

Ukraine: toleranceinyou@gmail.com

Application deadline: 23.01.26

Practical information

Dates: 22.02–01.03.26

Location: Bremen, Germany

Language: English (no perfect English required)

Costs: free

Accommodation & food: provided by the receiving organisation in Germany
Travel costs will be reimbursed directly to your account after the project

No previous artistic experience is required — curiosity and openness are enough, you do not need to be an artist or performer

Co-funded by the European Union

